The Department of History, Prasanta Chandra Mahalanobis Mahavidyalaya in association with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) of the college organized a webinar on "Glimpses of Bengal Rural Society: The Colonial Experiences" on 14th July, 2020 via Google Meet at 6pm onwards. It was also streamed live on college YouTube channel.

The Webinar began with a "Welcome Address" by Smt. Priti Mitra Head of the History Department under Prasanta Chandra Mahalanobis Mahavidyalaya. Dr. Shyamal Karmakar Principal of our college highlighted "Key Note Address" on the webinar. Smt. Aditi Bose introduced Honourable Speaker Dr. Amit Dey of our respective webinar.

Dr. Amit Dey Professor of Department of History, University of Calcutta spoke on "Glimpses of Bengal Rural Society: The Colonial Experiences".

Bengali Muslims constitute one of the largest Muslim communities in undivided Bengal during the colonial period to have an agrarian base. Dr. Dey spoke/ discussed the notion that Islam did flourish with all its vitality in a rural setting.

The discussion aimed at analyzing the intrinsic interweavement of environmental, cultural and religious spheres in the context of socio economic and political changes. The lecture was highly informative as well as much relevant which was followed by live-discussion.

Smt. Moumita Dasgupta anchored the webinar & co-ordinated the interactive session. The webinar was well attended by students, scholars & faculty members from various institutions. Eight hundred seventy eight participants attended the webinar in both of these two online platforms (Google Meet & YouTube). At the end of the interactive session, the webinar was ended with 'Vote of Thanks' by Dr. Kamala Mitra Co-ordinator of IQAC of our college to conveyed all the participants. We have issued the necessary 'Certificate of Participation' to all the participants according to feedback submission on the webinar.
