An Awareness Program on West Bengal Legal Service Authority: Protection of Free Legal Right Services of Citizens was organized in the college premises on 1st April 2022, by the Department of Political Science in association with The Internal Quality Assurance Cell of Prasanta Chandra Mahalanobis Mahavidyalaya, Kolkata. The program was introduced to the audience by Dr Uttara Kundu (Choudhuri). This was followed by felicitation of the eminent resource persons by respected Teacher-In-Charge, Dr Parthasarathi Dutta, respected IQAC Coordinator, Dr Alpana Ray and respected Secretary Of Faculty Council, Dr Somdatta Ghosh (Kar). Respected Teacher-In Charge, Dr Parthasarathi Dutta delivered the Welcome Address. Respected IQAC Coordinator, Dr Alpana Ray extended a warm welcome to the Resource Persons and highlighted the importance of this Awareness Program and also spoke about the possibility of creating a Legal Literacy Club within the college premises. The Awareness Program was moderated by Dr Uttara Kundu (Choudhuri). The first lecture was delivered by Justice (Dr) Pritamana Nanda (Secretary, District Legal Service Authority, North 24 Parganas). Justice Nanda began her lecture by explaining briefly to her audience the structure of the legal framework in the country. She then spoke about access to free legal services being provided in the country. In this regard she emphasized on Article 39A of the Constitution of India that states that State shall secure the operation of the legal system by promoting justice on a basis of equal opportunity, and shall in particular, provide free legal aid, by suitable legislation or schemes or in any other way, to ensure that opportunities are present for securing justice. All women, children, adults with special needs, refugees, victims of communal violence, environmental refugees, unemployed adults, SCs/STs and every other vulnerable category have access to free legal services. Adult men (who have an annual income of less than 1 Lakh INR) also have free access to legal services. Free Legal Rights Services provided to Citizens include pre-litigation counseling; legal support; alternative dispute resolution mechanisms; Lok-adalats (arranged daily, monthly and quarterly) and Victim Compensation Schemes. The services aim to be inclusive and empowers every citizen, specially focusing on very vulnerable categories like acid-attack victims, victims of child abuse, the economically disadvantaged etc. The Resource Person also made the audience aware about BHORSHA: (A unit of West Bengal State Legal Services Authority): A One Stop Support Center to facilitate access to justice in West Bengal. The second Resource Person—Ms Aratrika Das (Civil Judge, Junior Division, Barasat Judge Court) re emphasized the importance of creating a Legal Literacy Club in college. She stated that this could be created in collaboration with the West Bengal State Legal Services Authority and would help promote legal awareness among students, who are the future citizens and society-builders. The last Resource Person—Ms Bedas Shruti Mallick, Civil Judge, Junior Division, Barasat Judge Court) emphasized the importance of spreading awareness about Free Legal Services to one and all, so that the most vulnerable categories of society can avail of this service and be benefitted by it. An intensive Question-Answer Session took place after the awareness-raising talks by the eminent resource persons. Issues such as cyber-crime, bank frauds, ragging, domestic violence, functioning of fast-track courts were raised during this session and the eminent resource persons deliberated upon these issues and provided the audience with their valuable insights and relevant information. The Awareness program ended with a Vote of Thanks by Mr. Mohiuddin Mondal, In-

Name: State Level Seminar on Restoration of Ecology and Tiger Conservation in the Sunderbans: A Comprehensive Research

Date: 18th April 2022; Venue: Room No 15; Time: 12.30pm to 2.30 pm

Organized by Department of Geography In Association with The Internal Quality Assurance Cell

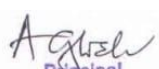

The special lecture on Mangroves and Tiger Conservation of Sunderban was organized on 18th April, 2022 by the Department of Geography. The seminar started at 12:30pm and many geographers participated in this seminar. This special extension lecture was delivered by 'The Mangrove Man' Umashankar Mondal, 2021 (Winner, Dr. Remington Award for Tiger Conservation). Mr Mondal explained how the Sundarbans are the largest mangrove ecosystem in the world. Mangroves are known to be among the most effective natural barriers against flooding. The 16 million mangroves already planted over 5500 hectares are reinforcing the existing 3,500 km of embankments and dams built by the local communities along the 54 inhabited Sundarban islands. He also spoke about how tropical cyclones are impacting this region. The most interesting element of his talk was how he and the other members of his organization– Purbasha Eco Helpline are working tirelessly on protecting Royal Bengal Tigers and on afforestation of mangroves.

Name: National Level Webinar on Caste Inequality Debates in India

Date: 19th April 2022; Venue: Online; Time: 12.30 pm to 01.30 pm

Organized by: Department of Sociology In Association with The Internal Quality Assurance Cell

To commemorate Ambedkar Jayanti and to celebrate Dalit History Month an online Special Lecture was organized by the Department of Sociology, in association with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell of Prasanta Chandra Mahalanobis Mahavidyalaya, Kolkata. The lecture was delivered by Dr Arvind Kumar, Assistant Professor at Dr. K. R. Narayanan Centre for Dalit and Minorities Studies, Jamia Millia Islamia University, New Delhi.

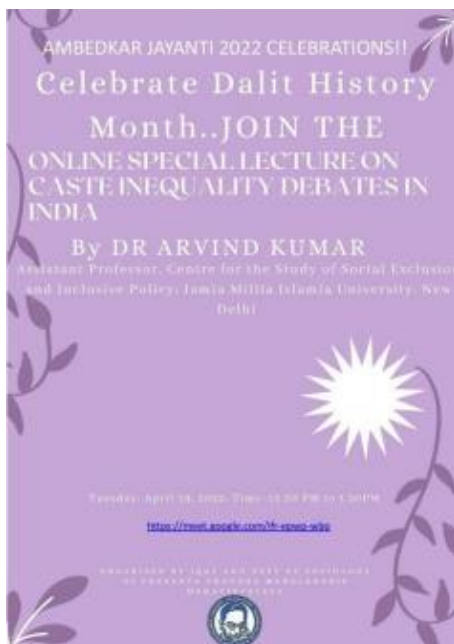

Respected Teacher-In-Charge, Dr Parthasarathi Dutta delivered the Welcome Address. Respected IQAC Coordinator, Dr Alpana Ray extended a warm welcome to the Resource Person and introduced the eminent Resource Person. The Special Lecture was moderated by Dr Sreyasi Chatterjee.

Dr Kumar began his lecture by talking about Dr B.R. Ambedkar—the great defender of human rights. While discussing the contribution of Dr Ambedkar, Dr Kumar spoke about how Dr Ambedkar being a member of the Mahar community, grew up witnessing social oppression in a caste-ridden society. Dr Ambedkar became a great champion of the Dalit cause by turning the depressed class movement into a revolutionary movement. Dr Ambedkar time and again emphasized on the centrality of Dalit classes in understanding the true meaning of Independent India. Today we celebrate this very revered civil rights leader who through his inspirational work ‘Annihilation of Caste’ voiced loud and clear a blistering argument against the ancient system of social stratification.

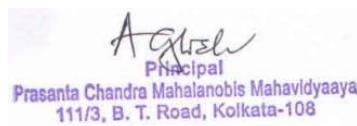

Dr Kumar, in the second half of his lecture elucidated upon popular caste inequality debates and how they shape society. Through examples, he questioned the occupational basis of caste and explained the linkage between caste and class. In his lecture, Dr Kumar traced the origin and development of caste inequality in India. An intensive Question-Answer Session took place after the special lecture by the eminent resource person. This session was conducted by Mr Debadyuti Karmakar, Assistant Professor, Department of Sociology, Prasanta Chandra Mahalanobis Mahavidyalaya, Kolkata. Issues such as increasing instances of violence against Dalits; caste-based reservation and various theoretical standpoints on untouchability were deliberated upon. The Awareness program ended with a Vote of Thanks by Dr. Sreyasi Chatterjee, HOD, Department of Sociology.

Name: State Level Seminar on "Revisiting Partition: Literature and Film"

Date: 28th and 29th April, 2022; Venue: Room No 15; Time: 12 noon to 4 pm

Organized by: Department of English and Department of Bengali In Association with The Internal Quality Assurance Cell

A two-day discussion on “Revisiting Partition: Literature and Film” was jointly organized by the Departments of Bengali and English, in collaboration with IQAC, at Prasanta Chandra Mahalanobis Mahavidyalaya from 28.04.2022 to 29.04.2022.

The discussion was inaugurated by Dr. Parthasarathi Dutta, TIC, followed by welcome addresses by Dr Somdatta Ghosh (Kar), HoD, Department of Bengali and Dr Sukanta Das, HoD, Department of English. The first speaker of the day was Dr Somdatta Ghosh (Kar), Associate Professor and Head, Dept. of Bengali. She discussed the representation of Partition in some of the significant and critically acclaimed films of the country like Meghe Dhaka Tara, Manto, Rajkahini, Sardar ka Grandson to name a few. Dr. Raja Basu, Assistant Professor of English, Sree Chaitanya College, was the guest speaker of the day who took the audience to the traumatic history of Partition in his speech on “Independence and its wounds: Revisiting Partition in and through Basti and a few films”. The speakers for the second day of the Discussion, 29.04.2022, were Sri Subrata Mondal, Assistant Professor of Bengali, Prasanta Chandra Mahalanobis Mahavidyalaya and Dr Sukanta Das, Associate Professor and Head, Department of English. The day commenced with an address from the Guest of Honour, Dr. Alpana Ray, Coordinator, IQAC, followed by a discussion by Sri Subrata Paul, the first speaker of the day. Dr. Sukanta Das’s topic of discussion was “Transporting Trauma and Shifting Fence: A Study of Partition Literature”. Dr Das sensitized the audience to the traumatic history of partition and talked at length about the literal and metaphoric significance of ‘fence’ in Partition literature. Each session of the discussion intended to feature the plurality of human experiences associated with the traumatic event of partition, provide an in-depth exploration of the occasion from both sides of the border and influenced the students to assess the historical event not just based on the empirical data made available by the official documents but also to complement the process by investigating into the humane, personal and at times marginalized dimensions of the event as provided by the Partition Literature. The event was supported by around forty-five students and ten faculty members from different departments. Each day concluded with enthusiastic interaction between the speakers and students present on the occasions.
