

Name: Tanima Paul Das

Qualification: M.Sc in Food and Nutrition (CU), B.Ed. (CU), UGC NET (LS)

Designation: Assistant Professor (Stage II)

Department: Food and Nutrition

Area of specialization: Public health and Epidemiology, community nutrition and health, data handling in cross sectional studies.

Email-id: tanima.fnta@gmail.com

No of Years of Teaching Experience: 10 yrs. 4 months in UGC Substantive Post

Publications (in Journals):

- Das T P, Sen M, Saha I, Chaudhuri D. Facets of the emergent pandemic of 21st century – obesity ,a life sentence to non communicable diseases. Institute of Science and Technology Journal on Business and Technology.2012;5(1):135-139.
- Das T P, Sen M, Saha I, Chaudhuri D. Prevalence and Gender Differentials of Metabolic Syndrome among college students of Kolkata, West Bengal, India. Int. J Cur Res Rev.2017; 9:14.
- Das TP, D Chaudhuri D, Saha I and Sen M. Comparison between three different diagnostic criteria in evaluating metabolic syndrome: An experience from college students of Kolkata, India Medical Journal of Dr. DY Patil Vidyapeeth.2020; 13 (4): 321-325.

Awards:

Received “Uma Memorial Scholarship” from University of Calcutta for standing First Class First in Food & Nutrition Honours in B.Sc. Examination.

Professional Membership: (Life Member)

- Nutrition Society of India
- Indian Public Health Association
- Indian Science Congress Association

Research Project:

Completed UGC Sponsored Minor research Project in ‘A study on the prevalence of metabolic syndrome among college students (18-24 yrs.) of Kolkata, WB, India’, 2013-15.

Administrative experiences:

- Was Convenor of UGC Sponsored National Seminar in September 2013 in collaboration with Dept. of Biochemistry and Nutrition, AIIH & PH, Kolkata
- Worked as Board of studies(UG) Member for Food and Nutrition, WBSU from 2011 to 2017
- Working as Governing Body Member (Teachers Representative) in PCM Mahavidyalaya (till date)